

1800 Phone Numbers

Critical Information Summary

Information about the Service

The Service

A 1800 number gives your business a national presence and your customers a single point of contact.

1800 numbers are for receiving inbound calls only. We provide you with an interactive interface where you can manage the features provided and where the calls are to be forwarded to. There's no need to install new phone lines, calls are simply forwarded to your existing landline, viop or mobile phone.

TelcoEdge 1800 phone numbers include many powerful features for your business at no extra cost to you as outlined below.

Bundling

This service is not conditional on any bundling arrangements.

Minimum Term

1 calendar month unless otherwise agreed or specified in an offering.

Other Information

On-line Access

Log into your TelcoEdge interface any time at <https://secure.telcoedge.com.au/voffice/> to access usage reports and manage your service settings in real time.

International Use

1800 numbers are specific to use within Australia and usually cannot be dialed from outside Australia hence we recommend to advertise your local Australian landing number for callers wanting to call your business from outside of Australia.

Where forwarding calls on your 1800 number to a mobile number that is roaming outside of Australia, your mobile carrier may charge you roaming fees.

Where forwarding calls on your 1800 number to an international number, the international call rates are shown at <http://telcoedge.com.au/pricing/international-rates>
